General reviews of Ember Dice

Xander on Oct 21, 2022

Immaculate build quality and detail, the fact that a beautiful piece such as this is 3d printed is truly impressive. The weight feels incredibly light and sounds like a small bell when rolled against harder surfaces, numbers are easy to read and its quick to learn how to read once you've seen it in your own hands, looks stunning and will impress every one of your friends you show it to. 11/10

I've looked heavily into metal dice and find most to be extremely heavy and clunky. However, this dice is completely different. It's extremely light and perfectly balanced. I love how light but solid it feels at the same time. I gotta buy more of this set!

-this is a quality set of dice, and made a wonderful gift -the seller promised lovely, unique metal dice, and that's what I got -"this is a review for emberdice on etsy", originally I was advertised these dice by a scam site using stolen images and reviews and they shipped me cheap, tiny, flimsy plastic knock-offs, the set from emberdice are the real deal and worth the price

While they took a little while longer than Etsy estimated to arrive, when they did, they are exactly as pictured. I'm not talking "exactly as I expected per the professional photograph", but honestly, even better quality than the photos. Each are amazingly inked, the weight on them is less than a solid die, and rolling them is fluid and tinkly, but not like rolling aluminum or some cheap pot metal. The finish work done on these is nearly a work of art in and of itself, these aren't just printed and sanded off. While the set wasn't cheap, I don't feel one bit of buyer's remorse regarding my purchase. These were worth more than what I paid for them in quality and craftsmanship, and I'm very pleased with both the seller and the item (nearly artwork) that he's gifted me.

These dice are an absolute dream! It took a while for them to get here, but it was well worth the wait. They're sturdy, sleek, and make a lovely sound when rolled. I can't stop admiring them, honestly. They're going to be my new favorite set to play with!

These are absolutely beautiful, intricately designed dice. They seem durable, and they feel substantial without feeling heavy. I chose to give these as a Christmas gift to my niece and her husband who are D&D fans. I'm glad I chose these as the set to gift because they are so nice looking and roll like traditional dice. The package arrived in time for Christmas, and I'm very happy with this purchase. I would purchase from this seller again.

Super dice! Wonderful design, super lightweight, great sound (almost chiming), well balanced, and they seem quite sturdy. They came in a nice packaging, and with two small gift and a sweet note from the shop owner. My new favorite dice! <3

These are perfect. They are light, but substantial. Rolling them makes a pretty chime noise. I can't find a single flaw on them. They perfectly match the aesthetic of my aggro artifact affinity deck. Ominous and beautiful. Also, weirdly enough, the d4 makes a great pendant 😊

These dice are incredible! They feel sturdy, the construction is great quality, and they look amazing in person! Aside from how great the dice themselves are, this shop provided some of the best customer service I've ever received. The shipping was prompt and the packaging was great. I can not recommend this place enough. If you're thinking of making a purchase from this seller, just go ahead and do it!

Just do it! Buy IMMEDIATELY! 1000000% worth what I paid and more! This is the most GORGEOUS D20 I have ever used in my life. It rolls like a dream, is perfectly weighted, and is so satisfying to listen to as it clicks across the table. The seller is phenomenal, and it shipped and arrived quickly considering the distance. I'm now saving for a full set because I cannot get enough of its gorgeousness! PS, I think mine might even be lucky, Nat 20 on my very first roll with it!

I bought the iron warden d20, and I loved it so much I bought the whole set! The d20 is so well balanced and it's so well crafted! It also makes a great noise when being rolled in my tower/tray! Highly worth the cost!

I ordered 3d4, hoping to find d4 that actually roll. I got exactly what I wanted, they're fantastic! They have excellent build quality: durable but light weight. They don't clunk like solid metal dice. Most importantly to me, they don't plop like every other d4 out there. They roll nicely, with the number clearly pointed up. They don't cock to one side, requiring a re-roll. The only down side is the cost. I hope the creator can find a way to have these dice produced at scale in a manner that reduces price without reducing quality. When I can afford it, I'll be purchasing a

How they sound

These dice are incredible, and they sound like wind chimes when they touch each other. My dice pouch feels like a legendary item.

These dice are absolutely gorgeous :) They look even better than on the pictures and sound like little wind chimes. They were sent out and delivered quickly, I would definitely buy from Labros again.

I bought the D6/D10 set before the full dice set was released, so I was already sold entirely on these dice! They're lightweight (the D20 is a bit weightier than the rest), GORGEOUS, tremendously fun to roll, feel well constructed, and THE SOUND THEY MAKE. It reminds me of how Santa's sleigh bells are described in that book The Polar Express; ABSOLUTELY worth every dollar you'll spend on them. 🍷

These dice are magical! Such a beautiful design and sound when you shake them. It's like a wind chime in your palm. Just be sure to roll them on a softer surface.

So this instantly became the best d20 I own and probably will ever own, can barely see the print lines and makes a pleasing chink when you roll it. If you're on the fence, get off it.

We're obsessed with this die. It's so ornate and well-made, kind of mesmerizing even! It makes a great jingling sound when rolling too, which is cool. I'll likely be back to buy more in the future!

Amazing craftsmanship and impeccable design. Your other reviewers got it right—these are works of art and I couldn't be more pleased. I also love the size, it just seems perfect for the design. Lovely service and the photos, which really sold me on them, are pretty spot on. Wonderful!

These dice are /amazingly/ gorgeous! They're so much lighter in weight than I was expecting and feel wonderful to roll. It's clear there was a lot of love and care put into crafting these and I am beyond excited for the opportunity to begin using them in future games. The seller was also amazing to work with and excellent with communication and customer service. Highly recommend.

This D20 is absolutely STUNNING. I've been looking for a D20 to wear as a pendant, and instantly fell in love when I saw this listing. I was nervous it wouldn't be as gorgeous in real life as it is in the photos, but it far exceeded my expectations. The dice looks delicate but is very sturdy, and all of the small details are flawless. I couldn't be happier!

At first it didn't look like it was metal until i heard it roll on my table. It is shockingly light and durable because i really follow through with my rolls. Slick die and no sharp metal abrasions.

I ordered the Iron Warden and Golden Arcanum d20s a couple weeks apart as gifts. The seller put each in the mail within a few days. They ship from Greece, so make sure you account for a long shipping time if in North America. It took ~4 weeks to arrive in Chicago, while the other package only took ~2.5 weeks to get to Canada. Both were well packaged, and each recipient loved their d20! Exactly as pictured, very high quality. Definitely would recommend, and I may have to pick some up for myself at some point.

I'm in california, seller is in greece, something happened over there which caused a delay in shipping but the seller was very open and let me know what was going on, and answered all my questions. Very nice seller, giving great quality items.... If you're interested in any of his items... you should go for it! Well worth the money!

Through the entire process of ordering these dice, it was simple and amazing. I accidentally bought two and cancelation process was fast and easy with the seller. When I got the dice they were made so well. I gifted them to my Fiancé. He absolutely loves the dice. It took some time to get used to using them, but he was beyond excited to get them. He's using them as we speak for a New Year's dnd 1-shot. Thank you so much!!!

Labros is perhaps one of the most helpful and skilled shop owners on this site. The craftsmanship on these dice is unparalleled, and the customer service was beyond terrific! Package does take a while to arrive to the US, but so do most overseas packages. Do not think twice before ordering from him.
